Thus is from Jane PORTALUPI from PORTALUPI tasting room, right next to the parking lot of the proposed hotel. Tim and I are currently in Sardinia and unable to make the meeting on Tuesday. We are, obviously, most impacted by construction and concerned about our ongoing capability to do business, especially in the park-let that we are paying the city $1000 per month to maintain. We would like to be part of the process in deciding on construction times, (no construction on Saturday's our busiest day) etc., and other considerations to keep our business running smoothly. Since we are unable to attend, can you express our concerns. We discussed our concerns with the owners at the open house they had at the parking lot a few months ago. Any contact information you can provide or process to have our concerns heard is appreciated. Thank you for the support. Can I contact you upon our return for an update on the meeting? Thank you again.
